

Prayerbook For A Common Faith

The Rev. David R. Graham

Adwaitha Hermitage

Mid 1990s

Prayerbook for a Common Faith is an effort to supply a need of humanity for a common referent in the area of piety and religious practice. The assumption of all such efforts is that a commonality does exist and that it is the point or set of points from which and to which effective piety refers. Similar efforts have been made in the past: Paul using common Greek, Jerome using common Latin, Luther using common German, Calvin using common French, Cranmer using common English. The intention always is to find, employ and expand the common ground so as to include all beings in the spiritual procession Godward.

The Common Faith indicated is confidence and participation in the words and word of the Lord: "For the protection of the righteous, for the punishment of evil doers and for the re-establishment of Truth, Righteousness, Peace and Love I incarnate from age to age."

Prayerbook for a Common Faith is a work in progress. Your contributions will be gratefully received. If you would like to offer more of a hand in the process, please so indicate. Mail may be addressed to The Rev. David R. Graham.
