Glenfinnan Viaduct
Picture taken from The Jacobite.
Glenfinnan Viaduct is a railway viaduct on the West Highland Line in Glenfinnan, Lochaber, Highland,
Scotland. It was built between 1897 and 1901. Located at the top of Loch Shiel, the viaduct overlooks the Glenfinnan Monument and the waters of Loch Shiel.

To Comfort And Encourage

To the unctuous declarations of aggressive messianic collectivists:
“Bull Shit!”

To their unctuous declarations that we cannot worship as we choose, speak freely as we wish, criticize them and their ideology, etc.: “Yes We Can!”

Whose tool is the fool?

Cry freedom in deed! Cry havoc in need! Help ever, hurt never!

Life itself, not science and not theology, is the standard of validity and God, not religion, is the ultimate concern.

To hell with Afro-Mohammedan Imperialism!

What you talk about do. What you cannot do, do not talk about.

To hell with Afro-Centrism.

To hell with aggressive messianic collectivism.

Collectivism, Afro-Centrism and Multiculturalism are doctrines of racial supremacy.

Finance is an aspect of logistics, not an industry.

Every problem is susceptible to theological analysis and every analysis is theological in nature.

To hell with feminism.

To hell with tribalism.

Learn to cope, do not try to manage.

Black/Arab racism is ripping the United States to pieces.

To hell with Black/Arab racists.

The Four Freedoms:

Freedom of speech and expression

Freedom of religion

Freedom from want

Freedom from fear
