

The Caliph And His/Her Sultans

Dan Riehl, perspicacious as usual, spotted this item as worthy of highlight.

The item is part of a matrix of items all pointing in the same direction. In the comments section of that post by Dan I wrote as follows:

Well, the latter comments grasp the import of this. That's encouraging.

From the Wikipedia article Dan links, this is the contemporary driver of "sharia finance:"

"One well-known contemporary social entrepreneur is Muhammad Yunus, founder and manager of Grameen Bank and its growing family of social venture businesses, who was awarded a Nobel Peace Prize in 2006.[6] The work of Yunus and Grameen echoes a theme among modern day social entrepreneurs that emphasizes the enormous synergies and benefits when business principles are unified with social ventures.[7] In some countries - including Bangladesh and to a lesser extent, the USA - social entrepreneurs have filled the spaces left by a relatively small state. In other countries - particularly in Europe and South America - they have tended to work more closely with public organizations at both the national and local level."

07 March 2010

Ann-Margret

Tie that with Dan's post on Illegal Immigration mentioned by FeFe and tie both of those with this from Big Government:

Now tie those three with reports through the years, and with increasing frequency modernly, that Mohammedan sharia financiers sit on the boards, largely influence or control numerous large US-originated multi-national banks, including especially AIG, and are pushing them steadily into institutions of sharia finance, which as the Big Government article just linked demonstrates is jizya for dhimmis writ large and perfectly "legal."

Now, after their initial [how long to last?] goat grab at the White House, this is what the "social entrepreneurs" at the conference held by the occupiers of the White House will be "deepening."

The announcement says exactly what they are up to, just in code, which is not even that cryptic.

Black Panthers are social entrepreneurs. So too Al Qaeda. Hamas. Muslim Brotherhood. CAIR, an MB front guiding every department of the US government and holding nearly every Member of Congress in thrall, is social entrepreneurs. Haiti is a nation of social entrepreneurs. Mexican and Salvadoran gangs are social entrepreneurs. FARC is social entrepreneurs. Communists/Anarchists, etc. are social entrepreneurs. Code Pink are social entrepreneurs. The Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps are social entrepreneurs. The Saudi Royal Family and their Wahhabi supports are social entrepreneurs. Mugabe is and

lakttagelse

Ann-Margret

Amin was social entrepreneurs. ACORN is social entrepreneurs. "Climate Scientists" are social entrepreneurs. Trial Lawyers are social entrepreneurs. Academic faculties since the 1950s are social entrepreneurs. "Green" advocates are social entrepreneurs. Van Johnson and a million like him are social entrepreneurs.

This is what's coming to "deepen" their involvement in the USA, as if it wasn't deep enough? Apparently not, there are still some non-jizya-paying dhimmis. "Health care" in case one hasn't recognized it, is jizya. So too is "cap-and-trade." Every program promoted by the occupiers of the White House is jizya.

Their constant disrespect to European leaders and allies is their treatment of dhimmis.

Ballots, opinions and elections are of no effect on this -- see the process for passing the jizya called "health care" -- because dhimmis don't vote, their opinions are of no consequence, they only pay tax for the privilege of being allowed to stay alive a little longer.

That's not a President occupying the White House, that's the Caliph. Calling a conference such as this is what a Caliph, only, can do and would do.

The Caliph wants his throne-land more deeply in his hands so he has called in his Sultans and Assassins to make it happen, and sooner than later.

lakttagelse

Theological Geography

Ann-Margret

11SEP01 was a victory lap. This one is to close the stadium.
There will be no more races.

Christian, my foot! Muslim, my foot! These are Mohammedans, specifically Afro-Mohammedan Imperialists.

lakttagelse

Theological Geography

Ann-Margret