

THEOLOGICAL GEOGRAPHY

October 11, 2009

The River Spey at
Aberlour in Moray
The River Spey
(Scottish Gaelic: Uisge Spè) is a river in the northeast of Scotland,
the second longest
and the fastest flowing river in Scotland. It is important for salmon fishing and whisky
production.

The Foundations Of Civilization And Nationhood

By The Rev. David R. Graham

First of all, civilization EXISTS so long as someone plays "The St. Anne" this well:

Prelude

Fugue

Johann Sebastian Bach
Prelude and Fugue in E-Flat Major, BWV 552

The Foundations Of Civilization And Nationhood

By The Rev. David R. Graham

These only are the responsibilities of national government:

Six inches or more of fertile top soil.

Clean water and sewage.

Abundant trees.

Protection of monasteries and creation and protection of judiciaries.

Creation, maintenance and commitment to warfare, upon military necessity and under military rules, judgment and decision, of combat-ready national defense forces.

Osservazioni

Haein Park Plays The Toccata

Suite Opus 5. By Maurice Duruflé
Torch Trinity Center, South Korea
On A Rieger Organ With Tracker Action, April 9, 2007

Click Here

The Lady Has Muscles, Tracker Action Is Mechanical!

The Foundations Of Civilization And Nationhood

By The Rev. David R. Graham

These only are the responsibilities of state and local governments:

Six inches or more of fertile top soil.

Clean water and sewage.

Abundant trees.

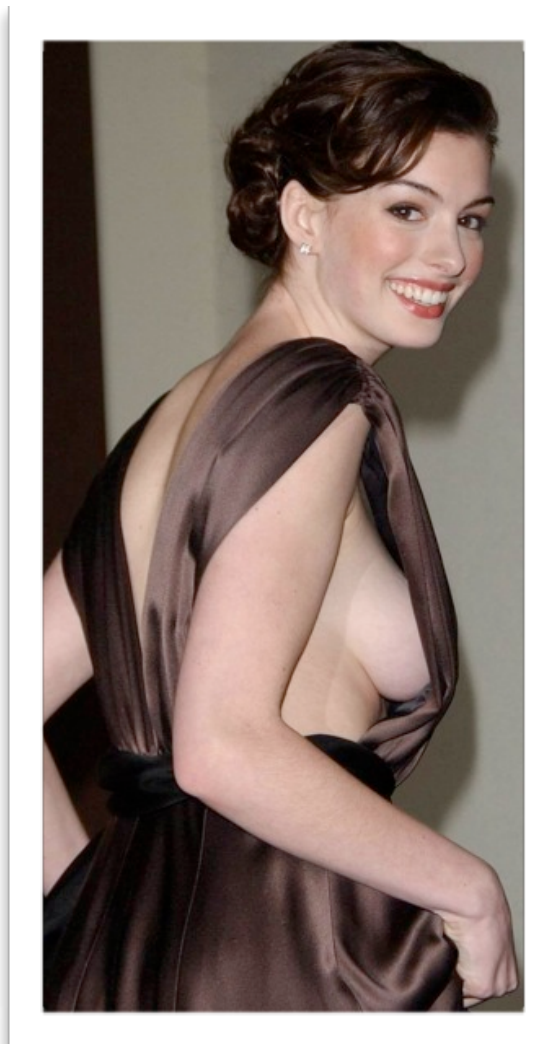

Protection of monasteries and creation and protection of judiciaries.

Creation, maintenance and commitment to crime-free cities, towns, villages and countryside of high-ready state and local police forces operating under policing rules, judgment and decision.

Osservazioni

Anne Hathaway