

THEOLOGICAL GEOGRAPHY

April 28, 2009

Shipping On The Clyde
The River Clyde flows on western coast of Scotland and connects Glasgow, ultimately, with the Atlantic Ocean.

Orientation And Intent Of The Madmen

By The Rev. David R. Graham

Using political satire, Dave Burge of Iowahawk discusses phenomena identified in the following direct observations. In this cynical and sarcastic age, Dave's chosen literary form probably is more palatable than direct observation.

The soi-disant administration in Washington D.C. is a vector of thieving madmen, racists conjuring the chaos of antinomianism. In their mind they are the Caliphate.

Their allegiance, actually, is to lawlessness itself, especially racial lawlessness. Their circle of friends, foreign and domestic, is those who bear the same allegiance.

They are without concern for the United States and in fact despise the United States precisely for her sense of fairness and law. They campaigned to take hold of the mechanisms of the government of the United States in order to eliminate those hallmarks of civilization from this and every other land, by themselves or by alliance with their friends.

With their friends of lawlessness, foreign and domestic, they are successfully accomplishing that mission. Every move they have made since 20JAN09 demonstrates their orientation, their intent and their high rate of success.

Almost none of their critics has grasped their origin or their agenda. Numbers of Americans who accepted to work in their administration remain blind to their reality or hope it is not really so. But it is so, and those Americans are going to answer for their blindness or their "hope."

Orientation And Intent Of The Madmen

By The Rev. David R. Graham

Almost all assume these thieving madmen have some solicitude for the welfare of the United States. Or worse, almost all are so afraid of them that they will not speak the truth about them despite knowing it.

This is why the thieving madmen are so successful. They have buffaloeed the American electorate and leadership cadre into a feeling of impotence producing either silence or resignation.

Some Americans are considering emigration. They have realized, too late, that they are enemies in their own land, targets for the institutional racism of their national executive.

Americans' own former national leaders are under threat of prosecution and execution as a warning to the population to shut up or get out. Some, probably growing in number, contemplate the latter option. But of course there is nowhere to go.

America has ceased to exist and in its place is a patchwork of queer, racist lawlessness.

The thieving madmen manufacture now or exploit crises to concentrate their rule. The sooner the population can be brought to an estate of abjection the better.

The trumpeters of "hope" are agents of hopelessness. The "change" they manifest is the destruction of the United States of America. They will call a constituent assembly to rewrite the Constitution and they will find a way to arrest the electoral process, either outright or by pollution.

Their underlying theme or orientation is antinomianism, lawlessness. Lawlessness itself is the absolute and only value of these thieving madmen. Their own madness is their agenda. Their delight is imposing their madness on this and as many other populations as they can.

This was the point of their "Berlin Speech" during their campaign to lay hands on the mechanisms of the government of the United States.

They do not see nations. Nations do not figure in their taxonomy of the world. They see populations to subjugate by compelling them to abjection.

The soi-disant administration in Washington D.C. is the apotheosis of Afro-Mohammedan Imperialism. It considers itself the Caliphate.

These thieving madmen are barbarians no less than their friends, the state and state-in-waiting Mohammedans and the African, Chinese and American tyrants.

They have realigned the mechanisms of the government of the United States away from lawful nations and groups to lawless ones, Arab, Iranian, African, Chinese and Hispanic. Anybody with brown skin. They are committed racists, fundamentalist bigots opposing everything "white."

This is why they slight Europeans, presenting them gifts of state comparable to the Arab "gift of a mirror and tweezers."

And they align with queers, although that is not clearly evident because, aping American standards, they insist they do not. However, the truth is shown in the fact that queers give them a pass because of their brown skin as well as because they support queers' central agenda, abortion. This indicates not only the hypocrisy but also the misogyny and racism of queers.

Queers comprise these thieving madmen's campaign managers, propaganda staff and many of their executives.

As one looks around the world to identify governments who are attacking the United States, one sees these:

The government of the United States
 The government of Iran
 The government of China
 The government of Syria
 The government of Sudan
 The government of North Korea
 The government of Pakistan
 The government of Venezuela
 The government of Brazil
 The government of Zimbabwe
 The government of Libya
 The government of Bolivia
 The government of Cuba

Add to these a cloud of Mohammedan revolutionary governments-in-waiting, an array of intending-Caliphates, and the structure of lawlessness from across the globe aimed at the United States appears both mighty and self-aware that it is.

However, that is appearance. The structure of lawlessness attacking the United States is not indomitable, but it is mighty. Its weakness is its own lawlessness. Every day it eats away its foundation. But with that it also eats away the foundation of the United States.

Every passing day makes removing these thieving madmen

Orientation And Intent Of The Madmen

By The Rev. David R. Graham

from the stage of history more costly in life and property. They would have it so, to discourage the effort.

The same structure of lawlessness, coincidentally, is pointed at India and Russia.

The scale of danger and battle invokes memory of the Mahabharata War, wherein the lawless Kurava Clan, nefarious thieves, ascended the throne as usurpers of the Pandava Brothers and could be unseated only by a world-wide war guided by an Incarnation of God Himself, Lord Krishna.

Today His Name is Sathya Sai Baba and in years to come Prema Sai Baba.

The first fact facing Americans is that their own soi-disant administration, an intending Caliphate (one among several), has applied itself assiduously to the task of reducing the United States of America to non-being.

Americans' own administration has deployed the mechanisms of their own government to lead the attack by lawless governments and governments-in-waiting against them personally and their country.

Almost every lawless government run by individuals with brown skin is now welcome to grab what they can of what was the United States of America.

Few Americans at this time, although feeling the impact of this fact, have allowed themselves to face it straight up and deal with it in the sense of reestablishing their nation on the pillars of Truth, Righteousness, Peace and Love. At this time, most who feel the fact of usurpation are inclined to run from it.

This cannot and will not always be.

How did all of this happen? The answer to that question is not given in Iowahawk's satire. It happened because of drugs, free association of the sexes and step-parents. And it started decades ago, before the 1940s and especially at Yalta. Its rampancy today is a fulfillment, not a start.

