

July 21, 2009

The Skating Minister
By Sir Henry Raeburn.
The full title is "The Reverend Robert Walker Skating on Duddingston Loch."
"The Skating Minister"
is the painting's short title. Duddingston Loch is a natural loch in the east of Edinburgh, Scotland,
and now a wildlife reserve there. The village of Duddingston, with Scotland's oldest
pub, was on the loch,
now part of Edinburgh.

Fundamental Policy In The Middle East

By The Rev. David R. Graham

Fundamental policy in the Middle East is to give confidence, to strengthen through education and to liberate through gun and law women, all of them.

The standards of the Greek and Latin Churches as expressed in modern American and European values and law regarding domestic violence are to be established and enforced throughout the Middle East.

This means, effectively, every Mohammedan society from South Africa to the arc Iceland - Central Asia - Iran - Afghanistan and from West Africa to the arc Central Asia - Iran - Pakistan - Afghanistan - Sri Lanka is to treat of women by standards external to every Mohammedan society in the Middle East.

The Middle East is everywhere there is a Mohammedan. So, tough. Do it. Push back all you want, but do it.

This fundamental policy, ongoing since before the defeat and disbanding of the Ottoman Caliphate, is the reason Mohammedans are pushing just now to rule the world. Their push is a push back that adds resolve and urgency to completing the mission of the fundamental policy. Growl they may but march they must.

Comments

Sofia Villani Scicolone

Mugdock Castle, The Ancient Clan Graham Fortress
In Strathblane

